Farm Bureau Named Officers

Few Changes Are Made In List of Officers For the Coming Year

The Randall County Farm Bureau met Monday night for the annual election of officers and other business.

All of the eight communities were represented by the community officers recently elected at the various meetings over the county.

The county board composed of these representatives elected the following officers for the year: A. E. Wise, president; H. W. Burrus, vice-president; Mrs. E. A. Michael, secretary and treasurer; L. E. Mason and W. S. Bennett were elected to serve with the regular officers as the Executive Committee.

The county group discussed ways and means for carrying out the farmers association program for the year.

Another meeting will be held soon to study the proposed insurance services of the Farm Bureau which it is expected will be announced soon.

These services are expected to greatly increase the value of membership in the organization.

At present the only service available to all members, sponsored by the organization, is the Blue Cross plan of hospitalization. This hospital insurance for all members and their families is handled by the county secretary.

Projects of local and county wide importance will be taken up and committees appointed by President Wise in the near future.

Heat Wave May Result in Damage to Wheat

Unprecedented hot weather has prevailed this week, with the temperature going to 91 degrees Sunday. This was the highest temperature for March in 16 years.

The hot wave has worried wheat farmers. It is almost a sure thing that freezing weather will hit before spring really arrives. Some of the wheat is much too far advanced for this time of year, and these hot days will cause the crop to grow much too rapidly. The moisture is likewise being sapped from the ground.

Farmers were elated after the rain of last week, and hoped for cool weather, but this heat wave hit rather than the cold which was desired.

Fruit trees are in bloom, and most of the shade trees are leafing out.

County Agent Will Move Office Over the Week end

County Agent W. H. Upchurch states that the new offices on the third floor of the court house are now completed and his force will move to the new quarters starting Saturday.

Owing to the great amount of records and filing equipment to be moved it will take a few days to get settled in the new quarters.

Army Called Up More Men Under Local Board

Two men, Joseph Ray Edward Greer and Aubrey Dick Woods, left Canyon yesterday to report to Ft. Sill for induction into the Army. They were sent in response to a call for 7 men.

Leaving for pre-induction physical examination today is Elmer Louis Hartman, also responding to a call for seven men. With him went Eugene Bragg Adams, transferred to this board for physical from the board at Childress.

Red Cross Will Continue Drive to Finish Quota

The Red Cross Drive will be continued until the quota of $3610 is raised, stated County Chairman T. V. Reeves yesterday.

Collections amount to $2350, which is about $1250 short of the quota.

Several district leaders have not reported on their collections, and these are urged to complete the canvass and report as soon as possible.

Mr. Reeves states that several individuals made their payments Tuesday while he was holding the city election. He hopes that other citizens will make their contributions at the Bank or at the City Hall.

Freedom of Press Discussed Tuesday at Rotary Luncheon

Olin E. Hinkle, professor of Journalism of West Texas State, discussed the history of freedom of the press at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday.

There is a misconception of the meaning of freedom of the press as he introduced the subject. Conditions have greatly changed in the nation. There are 10 states in which no cities of any size have competing newspapers. There are 22 states in which there are no cities with competing Sunday newspapers. 3200 weekly newspapers have gone out of business in recent years. It takes more to produce newspapers now than it used to, and better papers are published.

The smaller papers are usually edited and managed by the owners, while big city dailies are often owned by men with other interests. The newspapers gave wonderful cooperation during the war under the voluntary censorship of OWI, directed by Byron Price.

Mr. Hinkle told the story of the trial in the colonial court in 1735 in New York which laid the foundation for freedom of the press in America. A corrupt governor, sent over from England, sought to control an election. A newspaper reporter, John Peter Zenger, gathered information and wrote the story of the manipulations. His paper refused to publish the story for fear of suppression. Zenger was fined in starting a new paper and published the story. The governor had him thrown into jail where he was held for 8 months. Andrew Hamilton, an 80-year old retired lawyer from Philadelphia, became interested in the case. His closing argument has gone down in history as a classic in laying the basis for a free press. Mr. Hinkle got particulars on the case from a descendant in Philadelphia, who had uncovered the facts.

In this year, a belated movement is on foot to erect a suitable memorial to the memory of Zenger who led the fight for a free press.

Jack Neil Jennings passed the cigars in honor of his new daughter. A letter to the club from the West Texas High School was read, expressing appreciation for the series of talks on International Relations.

Bill Knighton was introduced as the Junior Rotarian for April. It is reported that Dr. Harris M. Cook is improving at the Veterans Hospital and is able to sit up in bed.

Next Saturday is the time for holding the annual election of school trustees. Elections will be held in all districts of the county. However, no election has been called for members of the County School Board.

There are three vacancies in the Canyon Independent School District due to the fact that the three trustees whose terms expire will not be candidates for re-election. These are: Dr. Harris M. Cook, Clay Cooper and L. D. Winn.

Three names will be on the official ballot: Mrs. Dan Sanders, W. R. Crow and B. A. Burrus.

B. Speer who leaves for a position in the Sul Ross Teachers College at the end of the school year.

Widow of Founder of Canyon Was Buried Here on Monday Afternoon

MRS. L. G. CONNER, pioneer of Canyon and Randall county, was brought home from San Francisco to be buried at the side of her husband, the late L. G. Conner, founder of the city of Canyon.

Mrs. L. G. Conner Died After Short Illness at San Francisco

Canyon Was Laid Off By Conners and Founded 55 Years Ago This Year

Mrs. L. G. Conner died on Wednesday, March 27, at San Francisco from an attack of pneumonia. She has lived at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. C. Bradford of Pasadena, Calif., for the past two years, and had recently gone to San Francisco to visit with her other daughter, Mrs. L. D. Herrell. Mrs. Conner was the widow of the late L. G. Conner founder of the city of Canyon. Her life has been connected with the community affairs of Canyon and Randall county for more than 50 years. She was 81 years of age.

The body was returned to Canyon to be laid at rest by the side of her husband, who died in 1920. The funeral was held at the Baptist Church Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Dr. Roy L. Johnson. Mrs. Conner was a charter member of this church, and had contributed much to the welfare of her church during the 50 years of residence here.

President J. A. Hill paid tribute to the Conner family and the spirit of pioneers who built the Panhandle-Plains country. He announced that he had recommended to the Board of Regents that the new dormitory on which the contract will be let next Saturday shall be named Conner Hall in honor of this family.

Pall bearers were Dr. Ford Fronabarger, W. C. Black, J. W. Shook, Dallas Milner, J. P. Hix and C. R. Burrow.

When the 50th anniversary of the founding of Canyon and organization of Randall county was held July 27, 1939, Mrs. Conner was selected as Queen of the Day. She was given great honors by her fellow townsmen and the 15,000 visitors who were gathered for this occasion.

It was on Christmas Day, 1887, when L. G. Conner surveyed Section 34, Block B-5, where the town of Canyon now stands. Mr. and Mrs. Conner had been married on January 19, 1884, when she was 18 years of age. Mrs. Conner was born Queenie Victoria Younger at Sparanburg, S. C. Her father was John Harrison Younger, a Virginian, and her mother was Margaret White. The Younger family set out for Texas in 1871 and settled in Grayson county which was on the frontier of the great west.

It was here that she met Lincoln Guy Conner, a student in the school which she was attending. When he was 21 years old, Mr. Conner gathered a few head of cattle and pushed on to Clay county. Before leaving he gave an engagement ring to Miss Younger. Two years later he returned and the couple was married. They returned to their new home, later coming on west to Quitaque, then Plainview, and later to Swisher county.

They decided to come on north and build a half dugout near the present site of Canyon, which was the community center of a large area. They entertained guests from all parts of the Panhandle, and visitors from afar were always welcomed at their home. It was in this dugout that their first child was born, Mamie Conner, the first white child born in this county. A son, James Guy Conner, and a daughter, Erma Conner, were born to the couple within the following seven years.

During the spring of 1889 Mr. Conner laid out the town site of Canyon. On July 27, 1889, Randall county was organized, and Canyon chosen as the county seat. The election was held in the front part of the Conner home. Their home was the first postoffice in Canyon.

When the Baptist Church was organized here, Mr. and Mrs. Conner became charter members. They contributed much to the growth of their denomination.

In 1909 when the college was located here, Mr. and Mrs. Conner donated 40 acres of land and $2,000 for the college. Their daughter, Miss Mamie, was honored as the first student to register in the new institution when it was opened in 1910.

Throughout the years Mrs. Conner has been an inspiration to the youth of the community. Hers was a happy disposition, radiating hope and happiness to all with whom she came in contact. A few years ago the Conner home was sold to the college, and a modest cottage was built for Mrs. Conner. When poor health made it imperative that she be with one of her daughters, she sold the cottage and moved to Pasadena. But her spirit remained in the town and county which she so dearly loved. She wanted to come back home. Her wish was granted only when death came to her last Wednesday and the earthly body was returned to the land of which her soul and spirit had so long been a part.

Rev. Findley at State Meeting of Christian Church

Joseph Findley, minister of the First Christian Church, attended the Texas convention of Christian Churches at the East Dallas Christian Church, March 25-28.

Over 1600 delegates from throughout Texas were present.

A highlight of the convention was a layman's league banquet at which 857 men ate together. H. B. Holloway, Indianapolis, new national secretary of men's work in Christian Churches was the principal speaker. James V. Allred and Harry Hines were co-masters of ceremonies.

Virgil Sly, national secretary of the United Christian Missionary Society, who has recently toured the extensive Christian Church mission field in the Belgian Congo, was another principal speaker at the convention. J. B. Hunter of Japan, Church H. Smiley of India were also interesting figures on the program.

No Work Possible on New Theatre at This Time—Wooten

W. J. Wooten stated Tuesday that he had received notice that his new theater could not receive priority for building materials at the present time, and therefore no work will be done until such a time as materials are available. Mr. Wooten had started excavation for the building just east of the Phillips 66 Station on Fourth Ave.

After the freeze of materials last week Mr. Wooten stated that he was not surprised because of the demand for building materials for returning veterans.

MOTHERS-IN-LAW NOT MEET

The Mother-in-Law Club will not meet tomorrow, Friday, because of the death and funeral services for one of the members, Mrs. J. W. McCreery.

Editorials

Herbert Hoover is calling upon you to save a slice of bread. That is fine and good. A slice of bread from each of us may help feed a few thousand hungry people of the world who need bread. But why not tackle this food problem in a sensible manner? Why not go to the bottom, instead of skimming around on the edges? Why does not someone tell the brass hats of Washington that while the people of America are saving a few million slices of stale bread that the wheat farmers of the United States stand to lose millions of bushels of wheat this year while the administration fiddles with the greatest problem of this food business. The facts are that few new combines have been manufactured during the war. Hundreds of machines are worn out and cannot be used this year. The farmers face the repair of their old machines. They have planted the wheat; the crop looks good; but what about the harvest? Why, Mr. Hoover, do you rush over to Europe? Why, Mr. President, have you not considered the real problem? Why continue to deprive the farmers of the necessary machinery to produce the banner crop which you are asking, and which the world needs? If adverse weather conditions set in about harvest time, the farmers of Randall county will not be able to use their old machines in gathering this needed wheat. Will the sage advice of Mr. Hoover then help them? Will the good wishes of the President and the Congress gather the harvest? It is the most ridiculous situation that has ever confronted the American farmer: A splendid wheat harvest in prospect, and no new machines, or no repairs to keep their old machines going. Instead of rushing to Europe to hand out a line of balogna, Hoover would do better to raise enough hell in Washington to get action on the machine bottleneck.

Governor Stevenson indicates that he will call a special session of the legislature. This should satisfy the members who have been clamoring for such a session. But he indicates that he will submit just one subject: legislative redistricting. The law provides that after each federal census the state shall be redistricted. There has been no serious effort to pass a redistricting bill since the early '20s. As a result the representative districts are entirely lopsided. A senatorial redistricting bill was passed a little later, but it is still inadequate. The Governor indicates that he proposes to call this special session after the primary this summer so that no member will be disturbed in his present districts. That is a good move. No member of the legislature can seriously object to the plan in view of the fact that it will not be effective until the primary of 1948. But East Texas will raise plenty of objections in view of the loss it will sustain.

A few weeks ago The News was elated to receive word that we would receive about the first of November the new linotype which we ordered almost a year ago. Now we have word that the linotype plant is tied up in a strike, because some small part of the organization which belong to some branch of some union that has something to do with the manufacturing plant had walked out. As a result the picket line is thrown up around the plant—and no good union man could dare desecrate the sacred soil trod by the pickets. Therefore, the entire plant is sewed up; our new machine may be gathering dust, and if either of our present machines breaks down it will be out of commission so long as the strike continues. You understand that when a picket line is run around a plant not even the owners can enter the plant to do the ordinary run of business. And our noble government stands back of all such damnfoolishness while the public suffers.

The people of Argentina held an election. A dictator was continued in office. The people voted just about like Americans would have voted if an outside power told them how to vote. The United States lost a political battle in trying to tell the people of Argentina how they should vote. Human nature is about the same the world around.

The University of Texas has been forgiven by the Southern Association (union of college profs). The University of Texas is the biggest and richest of the group, and naturally there is much jealousy among the members of the big school. Maybe the former board of regents, which fired Homer P. Rainey, was unwise in some of its actions. The present board has corrected some of its predecessor's rash acts—but Rainey is still the deposed president—and is looking with longing eyes toward the governorship of Texas. His plea for so-called academic freedom has not caught with the rank and file of the people of Texas. Too many of the voters do not care a hoot when a Board of Regents fires a college professor, or even a university president who makes a jackass of himself. Texas would probably be better off if other boards of regents would follow the example by firing more of this type of professors.

We see where Jimmy Roosevelt is jumping all over President Truman for not continuing the New Deal policies. Jimmy hands Henry Wallace a bouquet in the same breath. In other words, the President is too conservative to suit the New Dealers who would bankrupt the nation by giving away the resources of this rich nation. So long as Jimmy and Henry are out knifing the President we shall continue to think that he is a pretty safe and sane man. When the crown prince of the new dealers starts in to praise Truman, we shall become suspicious. We are hopeful that the President will start in to paying off some of this three billion national debt instead of playing politics for the sake of appeasing those who want to bankrupt the nation by continuing the lavish giving away program.

The Russian delegate to UNO walked out when the council voted almost unanimously for the expulsion of the Russian attitude toward Iran. Stalin has electrified the world by his lip service in praise of UNO, and the further statement that no nation wanted war. But Stalin has been telling the Russians that they must continue to sacrifice in order to make the new 5-year plan effective. Stalin is deliberately keeping the Russian people in ignorance of American conditions. They still think that the capitalist system is the worst thing in the world. Our states department has muffed the opportunity of sending millions of books into Russia and in not beaming radio broadcasts to the Russian people. Just how far Stalin is willing to continue his bluff is hard to say. He got his way during the war by bluffing Churchill and Roosevelt, and he has gotten away with a major part of his arguments with Stalin.

E. I. Hill in the Lynn County News: Dr. Homer P. Rainey, candidate for governor for the past year or two, made a speech to the "Young Democrats" down at Corsicana last Saturday and urged that the voting age be reduced from 21 to 18 and thus remove the "disfranchising shackles" from a lot of youngsters. Why not reduce it to 15 or maybe 12, Professor, and thus remove a lot of "shackles"? Why do you want to keep the 15, 16, and 17-year-olds shackled?

At the present time it looks as if Beauford H. Jester is the best bet in the governor's race. Jester is plowing right down the middle of the road and is refusing to get mixed up in the various factions of Texas politics. We say—at the present time—because all of this may change almost over night, especially if Pappy or Coke or Jimmy Allred decide to run.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

PLANTING SEASON

AS THE FARMER SOWS, HE LOOKS FORWARD TO THE DAY OF HARVEST... BUT SINCE THE YIELD DEPENDS ON MANY FACTORS BEYOND HIS CONTROL, HE KNOWS IF HE IS TO FARM SUCCESSFULLY HE MUST TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE GOOD SEASONS TO TIDE HIM OVER THE POOR ONES.

WITH WISDOM AND FORESIGHT THE FARMERS OF OUR NATION HAVE TAKEN ADVANTAGE OF THE RECENT GOOD YEARS, PUTTING THEIR MONEY INTO U.S. SAVINGS BONDS, LIFE INSURANCE AND SAVINGS, THUS PROTECTING THEIR OWN FUTURES—AT THE SAME TIME ASSURING OUR FOOD SUPPLY AND PROMOTING A SOUND NATIONAL ECONOMY.

Senator Bob LaFollette has dropped the role of Progressive in Wisconsin and will run on the Republican ticket. The Progressive Party was started by his father, known as Old Bob, one of the most dynamic and forceful speakers that we ever heard. Young Bob and his brother, Phil, used to travel with their father, and handled several trunksful of documentary evidence that the old Senator carried. They learned the art of public address under a master. Young Bob finds the Progressive theory has about played out in the nation. In going back to the Republican party he will have bitter opposition among the old guard who have resented the idea of Young Bob continuing to hold office under the Progressive banner.

The army is confident that Congress will eventually pass the bill providing for compulsory military training. To our way of thinking it is going to be tragic when the 18-year-old boys are taken overseas to do police duty instead of being allowed to continue their education. Why not have military training in all colleges? Let youth get the fundamentals of military training while it goes to school? That was the practice before World War I, and it proved efficient. Whatever of military they learn today will be obsolete tomorrow. All they will get is military discipline, and in college it will not be handed out by tough sergeants who make outlaws of the boys.

We see where the entire ration board resigned at Floydada. It protested that OPA affairs were being run from state headquarters without regard to the wishes of those who were on the firing line. Well that is no different from other governmental functions. Perhaps OPA has given local ration boards some rights to think, but Selective Service took over local functions some months ago, dictating the policies which must be carried out.

Just another week and the 37th Annual Convention of the Panhandle Press Association will be held. According to a report from the Herring Hotel in Amarillo there is an unprecedented reservation of rooms for the convention. Folks who expect to find much of a force around The Canyon News office on April 12-13 will be disappointed.

John L. Lewis has called out his miners. Lewis is the hardest boiled labor racketeer in the nation. Funny thing about this strike is that no mention has been made of wages which he demands for his miners. Instead of talking about wages, Lewis is practically demanding that his union take over and run the mines to suit him. One of these days we shall have an administration and a Congress that will get a tummyful of all this rot which has been fed the people by labor racketeers during the past 13 years.

We see where a judge turned the old man over a barrel when a youth delinquent was brought into court. This was the practice of early days, and may be the most effective way of handling juvenile delinquency. At the present time it seems to be the practice to turn the kids loose and let them do anything short of robbing the bank or committing murder. These naturally follow in due time.

There is an epidemic of forgery going on throughout the Southwest. Young men have passed forged checks in practically every town of the Panhandle. If you do not know the person who presents the check, or know the handwriting of the maker, simply do not cash the check. Forgers can imitate most handwriting, and the crazier the signature, the easier it is to forge. FBI warned every one: DO NOT CASH CHECKS FOR STRANGERS. If they cannot present identifications or satisfactory evidence, do not give up good cash for potentially worthless paper.

"OIL-PLATED engines... they'd better have!"

The "haulaways" are abroad in the land! Your new car is on order—or in your mind. And now here is why any car of yours should have an OIL-PLATED engine...

OIL-PLATING will shield your engine's insides. It saves fine-finished surfaces from lots of wear. And that's how it raises resistance against carbon, gum, and sludge.

An OIL-PLATED engine is yours for the asking. Simply insist on filling with Conoco Nth motor oil. Conoco Nth brings its added OIL-PLATING substance. This acts magnetically... joins lubricant durably to metal, so as to form protective OIL-PLATING! The process is the same in any engine. Though yours may not be new, this is an extra good time to OIL-PLATE it. For it needs a Spring oil change, and simply by getting Conoco Nth you'll get oil that OIL-PLATES—at a few cents' extra cost! Water Pageant Given In May

Physical Ed. Department To Sponsor Presentation Of Student Swimmers

"Ole Swimming Hole" is the title given to a water pageant which is to be presented in May in the College's outdoor pool. Fifty or more girls and men will participate in the pageant, says Mrs. Oma Ford, physical education instructor.

This presentation is the swimming story of childhood memories, which will be explained in a script. Try-outs for classifications of different levels of swimming have been held. The foundation of the pageant is the "Merry Maidens." These are the sixteen best swimmers. They will do formations including squares, circles, constellations, and other figures.

These sixteen girls are Marilyn Johnigan, Ann Beverly, Joan Pinell, LaNell Ekelund, Velta Speer, Jean Truax, LaWanda Moore, Fayrene Bolton, Jean Maase, Mary Cherry, Billy DeHart, Billy Bonfield, Audrey Lambdin, Avalon Smith, Betty Cox, and Mary Ruth Russell.

Featured in the pageant will also be water animals and many colorful exhibitions found in sea life.

If labor and lumber are available, bleachers will be built for the spectators. If bleachers are not built, there will be no admission charge, Mrs. Ford says.

Everything's Same

By E. A. HOUGHTON

McClure Syndicate—WNU Features.

WHEN John came into the kitchen from his room upstairs, they knew the homecoming was a failure. He smiled, but it wasn't the boyish eager grin of eighteen months ago. It was more like the automatic smile of a tired young stranger who was trying to please, trying to seem glad to be home again.

"Gee, Mom, my room—not a thing's been changed," he said slowly. "Everything's almost the same as—"

He stopped and Mathilda, watching her son's lips tighten and his eyes fall, glanced from him to his father. Harvey, silent but tense, sat stiffly in his rocker and stared out the window.

"Everything's almost the same—" The words echoed through the room. But of course it wasn't. Helen was married now and Eddie, who really shared the little room with John, was somewhere in the South Pacific. Nothing really had been the same since the war broke out.

Yet from John's letters Mathilda and Harvey had known he was hoping desperately it would be. "I'm almost afraid to come home," he wrote once just before his furlough. "I'm afraid things will be so different."

That was why they had tried—why the little upstairs room had been reopened, why the old pennants were tacked again on the walls, why the .22 had been oiled and placed in its spot behind the kitchen stove along with the high-topped hunting boots, just as they used to be.

Harvey shifted uneasily in his chair. Then he rose, crossed the room and commenced pulling on his galoshes. His voice was calm. "Come on, John. There's someone down in the barn that's mighty anxious to see you."

The son turned his head. "Nellie?"

Harvey stamped his feet on the hard floor and nodded, smiling.

The young soldier was silent as his mother pulled the coats from the row of hooks on the wall beside the stove. He took the heavy army coat she gave him, and she offered an ulster to his father.

"Not that one, Mathilda," his father growled. "The red one."

Mathilda frowned, placed the coat on the hook and handed him his hunting coat. "Smelly old thing," she fussed. "I don't see why you never wear the good one no more."

Harvey merely grunted as he pulled on the jacket and led his son to the door. Walking toward the barn neither had anything to say. But as they approached it John spoke suddenly: "I bet she doesn't even remember me."

"That's where you're wrong, son," Harvey answered firmly with a scornful frown. "She's been pinin' for you ever since you left—won't let anyone else even touch her. Why, I have to let her out in the pasture to clean her stall."

"Yeah?" John's tone was politely skeptical.

"Wait here a second, son," the old man said at the barn door, "and let me show you. Watch."

John stepped out of sight of the horse as his father approached Nellie. On seeing the red-coated figure the young mare reared quickly, whinnied and pawed the air.

"Whoa, Nellie!" the old man said, but the frightened mare whirled, snorted and retreated to the rear.

Harvey came back to John, smiling. "See?" he said triumphantly. "Now, you try it."

There was a tense expression about the young man's mouth as he stepped forward. From the door where John had stood, the father looked on quietly. The horse whinnied again, raced toward the soldier and poked his muzzle into the khaki collar. John's hands went up and stroked the soft wet nose. "Hello, Nellie," he murmured warmly. "You do remember—don't you?"

Harvey was happy as he went back into the kitchen. Mathilda threw him an inquiring glance, and Harvey motioned her to the window. Side by side, through the frosted glass they saw John lead the mare from the barn, mount her unsaddled, just as he used to do, and then horse and rider galloped down the lane.

As he passed the house John turned, waved and grinned—the old boyish grin.

Everything, they knew then, was the same after all.

The stove sizzled. The room was pleasantly warm. Mathilda turned to her husband, sniffed, and said in a scolding voice, "Harvey, take off that dirty old hunting jacket. Heavens, it smells like a stable!"

Harvey walked to the row of hooks, pulled off the coat and placed it on the rack tenderly, as if it were an old friend. "It oughta smell a little bit like horses, Mathilda," he said. "You see, I've been whippin' poor old Nellie with it every day for over a month!"

INDUSTRY FOLLOWS OIL!

WE'VE GOT PLENTY OF IT!

Oceans and oceans of oil—and all in this vast area—and our supply will last for years and years. We all know that our peacetime industrial growth will demand more and more oil and natural gas and our petroleum people are ready and eager to supply them. Even now, the Panhandle-Plains and Southeastern New Mexico is producing high octane gasoline, natural gasoline, synthetic rubber and carbon black.

Yes, the Panhandle-Plains and Pecos Valley have plenty of oil and natural gas and an abundant supply of low-cost, dependable electric power to operate large industrial plants which process these natural resources into finished products.

Duck Callers Compete For $1,000 Grand Prize

STUTTGART, ARK.—The national duck callers contest held here recently brought in 130 of the country's best men and women duck callers for the competitions. National crown and the $1,000 grand prize went to Chick Major of Stuttgart. Best woman duck caller in the contest was Ruth Lynch of New York City.

Duck calling, the duck hunter's art, to bring in wild ducks flying high, reached a zenith of national interest this year with coast-to-coast networks vying for broadcast rights and more than 35,000 people inundating Stuttgart, normally a town of some 5,000 persons.

Entrants quacked away for judges beginning in the early dawn until the winner was announced at 11 p. m. that evening. Judges based their decisions on the hail call, the feed call, the mating call, the overwater call, the chuckle and come-back calls.

603 Jap Ships Sunk in Last 4 Months of War

PEARL HARBOR, T. H.—Japanese navy statistics, released by fleet headquarters, disclosed that 603 Japanese vessels, totaling 1,450,000 tons, were sunk or damaged from all causes, but chiefly by mines, between April 1 and August 1. The ships were of 500 tons or larger.

Effectiveness of the mine laying campaign, designed to isolate Japan from the Asiatic mainland, was demonstrated by the fact that more than 52 per cent of the total tonnage was accounted for by mines. Ships sunk or damaged by mines in the four-month period totaled 297.

Actual sinkings detailed by the Japanese showed 127 by mines, 94 by aircraft, 80 by submarines, and 15 by all other causes.

Directors Decide Museum Finish To Be Expedited

The Plains Museum will be repaired and the main unit completed as priorities permit.

This authorization was given officers on report of the executive committee by the board of directors of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society when they met Saturday in the Amarillo Hotel.

It is likely the north wall will be finished and the main unit bricked in and a roof put on the concrete and steel structure. Availability of materials, labor and of priorities will be the determining factor of time in starting the work.

The directors also asked committee workers to push completion of the $60,000 building fund as quickly as possible. There is now $29,430.59 in cash and bonds in the bank.

A nominating committee was named, consisting of O. H. Finch, Dalhart; Jake Stahl, Borger; and John McCarty, Amarillo.

Directors of the society were asked to serve as its official representatives when a bronze marker is placed on the old Goodnight Home ranch deep in the Palo Duro canyon.

Miss Bowman Is Given Fellowship

Miss Fern Bowman, class of 1928, has been awarded the Pet Milk Fellowship given through the American Home Economics Association. The fellowship carries a cash award of $750, given to students specializing in foods and nutrition. She was one of the two selected by the national committee from seven recommendations from universities in the United States for the national fellowships given by the Evaporated Milk Association.

Miss Bowman is doing graduate study in the University of Wisconsin. She had been granted previously a fellowship by the University.

Her special problem is the reason for discoloration found in cooking potatoes, especially varieties in Wisconsin.

Miss Bowman, who is on leave from the University of Missouri, plans to resume her duties as head of the foods department in the College of Home Economics next September.

IMPORTANT FACTS ABOUT

Your Combine

Many farmers have followed our advice in getting their tractors repaired during the winter months while we had the available labor and parts.

Another important crisis confronts wheat farmers now.

IT IS TIME TO GET YOUR COMBINE READY TO RUN.

Randall county is faced with a most critical situation. We have good prospects for a big wheat crop. You have not been able to buy many new International combines during the war. As a result many combines are in bad state of repair.

The situation is simply this: Due to continued strikes there will be few combines available for the 1946 harvest. Furthermore, there will be a shortage of vital parts, due to tie-ups in the plants in the production of parts.

Fortunately we have a good supply of parts NOW. But they will not last long when harvest gets underway, and the old machines begin breaking down.

We urge that all wheat farmers act at once in getting their combines tuned up; have them repaired by our experienced mechanics; and be ready for harvest.

HARVEST WILL COME SOON WHAT ABOUT YOUR

Combine

Every farmer knows how vital is his combine during wheat harvest.

Every farmer knows the critical situation as to new combines and to repairs for their old machines. Due to strikes and shortages there simply will not be the usual flow of machines and parts this year.

This means that action must be taken now to get ready for the 1946 harvest.

Every bushel of wheat must be saved in 1946 to feed the starving world. In order to do this, all farmers must get their combines ready for harvest now, while parts and labor are available.

We hope to be able to service your combine before you are ready to start cutting.

Develops Plan to Create More Jobs

Plant Seeks to Encourage Small Industries.

DES PLAINES, ILL.—Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach estimates that by next April there will be 7,000,000 employables out of work. It is pointed out that every small shop, especially those serving their immediate communities have been undermanned. If each of these two and three-quarter million shops, whether they be retail, manufacturing, or service enterprises can add an average of two men to its payroll we shall have accomplished the re-employment of 5,500,000 men and women. This will cut a pretty big hole in the unemployment pattern.

With this thought in mind, the DoALL company has adjusted its entire merchandising outlook.

It has developed an occupational-independence plan which seeks to encourage the creation of additional small enterprises in the metal, wood and plastics working field as well as their expansion.

Highlights of this plan according to Chairman Wilkie, are, first, to provide direct and specific assistance to veterans enabling them to pursue peacetime occupations which offer a high degree of security; and second, to help produce a class of men who will be given an unrestricted opportunity to develop and become successful by their own efforts.

"In general, the returning war veteran is not looking for a hand-out," Wilkie said. "He wants what all of the rest of his fellow citizens want: the opportunity to pursue a productive and profitable career."

The program seeks to show the servicemen how to organize and operate service and repair shops which are a basic need in all communities.

This training is offered at the DoALL Technical Institute, set up by the company to train men and women in the use of the basic equipment of eight types of community service and repair shops.

Although the various types of shops included in the program are designed primarily for repair and service work in communities scattered from coast to coast, ambitious operators, the plan points out, may readily expand into small specialty parts manufacturing, and from this point they may follow logical expansion into large modern industries producing industrial and consumer goods.

The program provides the specific layouts for the various shops, lists the machines, tools and equipment required to begin operation, gives information concerning costs and methods of financing, and in general covers the entire prospects of the industry.

Lend-Lease Tools Stay,

Australians Are Told

CANBERRA, AUSTRALIA — Return of machine tools sent to Australia by American lend-lease during wartime will be unnecessary, Customs Minister Richard Valentine Keane said recently.

He said that negotiations were under way between Australia and the United States on the matter when V-J Day arrived, and "since then the subject has merged into the wider question of reaching a settlement for all lend-lease goods held under government control in Australia."

There is no reason, he added, for manufacturers in Australia who hold lend-lease machine tools on hire to feel any anxiety that the equipment might not be available to them for postwar expansion.

Nuts in Plenty for This Winter, and Cheaper, Too

WASHINGTON. — Nuts, said the agriculture department, will be more plentiful—and cheaper—this fall and winter.

Good news for fruitcake makers is the forecast of a record crop of more than 23,000 tons of California almonds.

The department also said the walnut crop will be 14 per cent above average.

Pecans, the most important U. S. nut, also will be available in bumper quantities. The South will send nearly 74,000 tons of these choice nuts to market this year.

Also better than average will be the production of filberts.

Plenty on Table Forecast for '46

More to Eat Than Ever in History, Is Outlook.

WASHINGTON.—Americans may have more to eat in 1946 than ever before in the nation's history. The agriculture department forecast considerably larger supplies of most foods than were available this year.

If the department turns out to be right, per capita consumption would be more than 11 per cent above the prewar level of 1935-39.

But different foods will not be equally plentiful, the report stated. Supplies of pork, the better grades of beef and veal, fats and oils (particularly butter), sugar and canned fish are expected to be smaller than the amount consumers would buy at present prices.

Most of the improvement in the food supply will result, the department said, from a sharp cutback in military requirements. The armed services are now expected to take only between 25 and 33 per cent as much as they used in 1945.

The department said, however, that exports in 1946 will continue large, assuming that satisfactory financial arrangements are completed.

The greater part of these exports will move in the early months of the year, mainly to the United Kingdom and the liberated areas of Europe.

The department said meat consumption per person next year is expected to reach 145 to 155 pounds, dressed weight.

Consumption this year is expected to average about 130 pounds, although at the present time it is estimated to be at the annual rate of about 145 pounds.

Eggs and fresh milk are expected to continue plentiful, while consumption of chicken, turkey, fresh fruits and vegetables, frozen and dried fruits, potatoes, sweet potatoes and cereal products are expected to average substantially the same as this year.

New Warning by Science Sounded on Use of DDT

NEW YORK.—Indiscriminate use of DDT can be just as dangerous as the atomic bomb, according to Dr. C. H. Curran of the American Museum of Natural History.

Dr. Curran was one of more than a dozen experts who spoke during a forum on the powerful, new insecticide at the opening of the 41st annual convention of the National Audubon society.

"Eventually," Dr. Curran said, "we will find that we have in DDT just about the perfect insecticide. But meanwhile its indiscriminate use without proper knowledge can be just as dangerous as the atomic bomb."

The speakers agreed that DDT used over wide areas to kill off insect pests, if not carefully applied, could do great harm in killing insects beneficial to man as well.

Red Inventor Perfects Film in Third Dimension

MOSCOW.—The Soviet film industry is preparing a surprise for the world's movie fans—a special production of "Robinson Crusoe" to be exhibited on a new stereoscopic screen designed to give rounded three dimensional images.

Semen Pavlovich Ivanov, the inventor, said that the screen creates an illusion so perfect that viewers unconsciously dodge when pictures of birds or airplanes are shown.

"I saw them reach out their hands to catch flowers that were thrown," he continued. "In a scene in which confetti streamers were trailing over the screen I even saw a man in the audience get up and whip his cane around above his head to see if anything really was there." The effects are achieved by projecting a specially designed film with a double row of images side by side onto a screen made of 2,000 exactly cut and matched pieces of mirror glass.

The prehistoric discovery of the FLAME was man's first step toward civilization; and from that ageless past to the present, the Flame has been keeping humanity warm, cooking its food and performing other services. However, no energy, even that of the FLAME, would be valuable to modern civilized society unless it would be capable of being controlled. It is interesting to note that it was this controllability that, early in our economic history, provided continued usefulness to the GAS FLAME—a usefulness that through the years has constantly widened and strengthened. Today this controllability reaches its highest point of development. And so, as in the past, the GAS FLAME will continue to release, even more effectively, its energy, remaining man's faithful servant for cooking, water heating, refrigeration and year 'round home comfort.

There is more truth than poetry in that little verse . . . in World War I many farm borrowers "went up the hill" and obtained loans based on war-inflated prices. You know what happened when those prices fell after 1920!

Today, a growing number of borrowers and lenders are going "up the hill" again . . . getting loans which can be carried only if war production and prices are maintained long after the fighting stops. History and common sense tell you that can't be done.

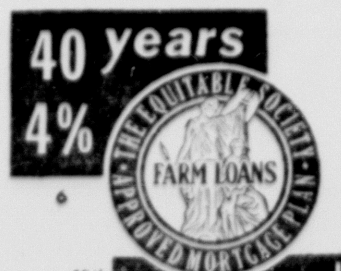

Don't misunderstand us . . . buy yourself a farm if you wish . . . pay what you think it is worth to you. But, for your own peace of mind and future security, be sure that your loan will be within your means when money may come harder than it does now!

How much, then, can you borrow safely? There is no hard and fast rule, but you can obtain the most, safely, when your loan is carefully fitted to your needs with special features to protect you in less favorable years.

Now, through our special arrangement with The Equitable Life Assurance Society, this bank can offer you loans for up to 40 years that are geared to the long-term earning power of your farm—not its liquidation value.

Don't be misled by offers to lend you more money. In farm loans the most is not always the best.

Volleyers Snatch District Title

Wright Places First in 880
Abbott Places in Pole Vault

In a hard-fought battle Saturday, Canyon girls' volleyball team defeated Dumas two out of three games to take district honors at 1-A Track Meet.

First Game Close

The CHS lassies got off to a slow start with Dumas leading through the first half of the opening game by a score of 10 to 5. Showing a sudden spurt of energy, the Eaglettes slapped the ball across to tie the Demonettes and forge ahead for game points. Score 16 to 14.

Slowing up preceptibly in the second game, the Canyon contenders fumbled, missed tries for scores and lost the game 8 to 15.

One Last Effort

In the final game, the Eaglettes were off to a quick lead of 10 to 5. The Dumas lassies, summoning all possible strength, climbed steadily with counters until the score was tied. But the Eaglettes, not to be denied, rallied to take the lead once again and the final score of 15 to 13.

Ford and Morton were leading tallies with a total of nine points each. McDougal ran a close second with eight points. Johnigan captained the team for the day.

Boys Take Honors

Wright, surpassing any of his practice records, took first place in mile relay at Saturday's District Meet 1-A with a 2:13.4 run. He will represent Canyon High School in the Regional Meet at Lubbock, April 13.

Canyon Relayers placed third in the 880-yard run. Abbott, Michael, Wall, and Gunter were the team.

Abbott tied for second place in pole vault with a jump of 9 feet, 6 inches.

WEEP FOR THE FREAK WHO DRIVES A JEEP

Whizz! And what was that thing that passed me and who was it? A jeep? And George was driving it? O come now, he wouldn't drive that fast!

Since the war, the speed limit has been raised in city limits. Taking advantage of this, the fellow (freak?) who drives a jeep, post-war or not, usually gains two blocks with the lowering of one foot on the accelerator.

Built for speed? Of course, but so is any other automobile. Sturdily constructed and of the best materials, jeeps are bought by civilians and used as automobiles, but with that super 80-mile-an-hour technique.

Try curbing that itchy foot to prevent our weeping for the freak who drives a jeep.

Members Attend Chorus Festival

For their first party the Chorus Club met last Tuesday in the home of Max Bellah from 7:30 to 10:00.

Entertainment included games planned by Gracie Boyd, Gerald MacDuff, Barbara Head and Mary Mae Peppard, and dancing.

Max Bellah, social chairman, Donna Erwin, Jo Ann Bullard, June Long and Mable Ann Graham had charge of the refreshments which consisted of sandwiches and punch.

Norma Zachry, president of the Chorus Club assisted both committees.

Sophomores Hold Evening Social

Members of the sophomore class met in the high school gym at 7:30 Friday, March 26, for their first party of the semester.

Racing and guessing games were included in the entertainment furnished by the roommothers and the party dispersed.

Refreshments were ice cream and cake planned and financed by the roommothers who are Mrs. W. W. Nicklaus, Mrs. Earl Burtz, Mrs. M. L. Davis, Mrs. E. S. Sanders and Mrs. E. A. Michael.

Bobby Whitaker withdrew from Canyon High School Friday, March 29. Bobby, a former member of the eighth grade, has moved to Clarendon to make his home.

Well I guess you all know by now that Charles Wright was seen escorting W. T.'s Bette Brown to the local movie house the other night.

Confidentially, I hated to see Blake Zachry and Alice Pierce break up. Too bad, kids.

Attending that little picnic Monday were: Joanna Haines and Carol Wray Dickerson; Leo Irwin and Mary Ruth Hill; Wayne Kelso and Rebecca Irwin; Donna Irwin and Harold Martin; Carl Hair and Sue Jennings.

Billie Danner and a certain man from Amarillo really seem to be cooking on the front burner. I think they're serious, but don't breath a word of it to anyone.

CHS Is To Have Record Library

During class meetings last Friday, the junior class voted to begin a record library by contributing five dollars worth of records to the school. The P. T. A. has decided to buy a record player for CHS and if the students will help, it is believed the project will be successful.

By adding a record each time and replacing those broken or damaged in any way, classes will be permitted to use the records for parties and Youth Centers.

"I think it would be a very worth while project for the school to attempt," says Miss Kathryn Davies, sponsor of the junior class. Our principal, Mr. Milton Sanders says "If we get the record player, I believe it would be fine for this school."

By Louise Tucek

Eaglettes during this week have won two games from Happy Cowgirls and the Dumas Demonettes and lost one to Amarillo. They entered District Saturday against Dumas and Dimmitt.

Entering the District Tournament this year will be Frances Gooch and Betty Ann Miller in doubles for tennis.

Ending the basketball intramurals this week the Freshman took first place, Sophomores second, and Seniors third.

Starting next Tuesday volleyball intramurals will be played at noon.

Baseball is now the sport of Canyon High for the boys are playing soft ball during the lunch hour while the girls play during P. E. classes.

Some boys will not be able to enter the track meet because of some small accidents. For example, Clifford Burtz was thrown from a horse, but what we don't get is what did he do to the horse, for it had to be shot. Why did they have to shoot the horse and not Clifford?

FHA Girls Retain Hobo Work Day

In a weekly meeting Wednesday, March 27, the Future Homemakers were called to order by the president, Alice Pierce. The F. H. A. Chapter discussed old business, and discussed having a second Hobo Day. The class set the date of April 6, for doing odd jobs that housewives of Canyon may want done.

Anyone needing this type of work is urged to notify Miss Davies, sponsor.

For the first time since the war, this group will send a delegation to Pampa April 27, to an Area I meeting. This is the first F. H. A. area meeting to be held in several years.

The next club meeting will be held Wednesday, April 3, at 8:30 o'clock.

"We are hoping all the Future Homemakers take an active interest in this project and that the housewives of the community cooperate as they did before," states Miss Kathryn Davies.

Junior Class Present Plans For '45-'46 Youth Center

Class meetings held in CHS Friday morning, March 29, brought the following results:

Senior class members took their head measurement, and gave their weight and height for the graduation caps and gowns. The students discussed suggestions given the class by a committee consisting of Ruth Prichard, Ray McDonald, Norma Zell Zachry, and Louise Dickinson as to a fitting gift to leave the school. Sixth period the seniors had a call class meeting to distribute senior play tickets for selling. Mr. T. L. Devin, class sponsor, talked to the play cast concerning future practice.

After the resignation of the junior class president, James Guthrie was submitted, James Rigsby took the position. The juniors are sponsoring the Youth Center which will be held Tuesday, April 9.

Members of the sophomore class held a short business meeting and students gave yells for the coming District meet. To close this meeting the sophomores sang the school song.

At the beginning of the freshman class meeting a play, "Snoops Scoop," was presented. Participating in the play were: Neil Kilchriste, Don Hickman, Jimmy Lindsey, Wanda Jean Edwards, Suanne Stephenson, Peggy LaLoge, Harry Campfield, June Jennings, Gladys Lowe, Verna Davenport, and Billy Cleavinger. Jerre Inman and Tommy Christian were elected stage managers. Joan Bullard was Master of Ceremonies, and Frankie Sneed and Louise Prichard were prompters. "Snoops Scoop" will be presented in assembly Friday morning. The program was closed as Sharlean Pyeatt sang "Personality." Plans for a party at Palo Duro

Freshmen Girls Outscore Seniors Winning Basketball Intramurals

Country Club, May 10, was decided upon. Members of the eighth grade chose their class flower, yellow rose, and colors, yellow and gold. Earl Simon and Fren Baren played the french harp.

Upon Bobby Whitaker's leaving CHS to move to Clarendon, the class presented him a book.

Members of seventh grade played a game called Purr Kitty and Cross Question and Crooked Answers. The treasurer gave a report and Clenton Dodson gave an advertisement on Fuller brushes to Mrs. Ball, class sponsor. Merle Ballard whistled "Yankee Doodle Dandy" to close the meeting.

Dickinson Receives Editorial Honor

In an editorial contest, held Tuesday, March 26, in the Journalism department, Louise Dickinson's composition "Weep for the Freak Who Drives a Jeep" took first place.

Students who wished to enter the contest chose one of six subjects for the topic of their editorials. The participants then wrote their compositions of not more than 120 words in the allotted time which exceeded not more than forty-five minutes.

Anita Johnigan won second place with her editorial "The Pages Are Grand, the Theme Is Great, Order Your Yearbook Before It's Too Late." Cheri Kilchriste's entire written on the same subject took third place.

Mrs. Hornstra, Mrs. Merchant, and Mrs. Gilmore, English teachers judged the editorials. Louise's editorial will be submitted to the national contest sponsored by the Quill and Scroll Honor Society.

Schaeffer and Wallen Add Humor of Farce-Comedy

"And don't ever come back!" orders Gaylord Clayton, alias George Schaeffer, of Phelps Webb, played by Ray McDonald, as Judy Clayton, young and beautiful daughter, Louise Tucek, looks tearfully on. Tillie, the maid, characterized by Alice Pierce, adds laughs galore and packs many surprises.

Bedelia Shannon, Cheri Kilchriste, applies in the Clayton home for the job as cook, in answer to an order placed by Aunt Polly, Gaylord's old fashioned sister, played by Billie Danner, and is mistaken for a matrimonial agent, which naturally causes a great deal of mix-up. Louise Dickinson portrays Miriam Day, the glamorous matrimonial prospect, that is mistaken for a cook. Agatha Cornwall, Anita Johnigan, an old maid of 38, who insists, "I'm much too young to go with boys," pursues good-looking, Prescott Clayton (Weldon Lindsey), studious bookworm and son of the Clayton's. Lynn Fuller, Aunt Polly's lovely and efficient secretary, played by Shirley Harrison, eventually wins Prescott in spite of the fact that he thinks, "that all girls are just a bunch of morons."

Donna Clayton, (Billie Wallen) mother of the brood, insists that "she never interferes with her children's affairs" but with the aid of Aunt Polly she is successful in intruding without their knowledge.

Herbert Howson, alias Blake Zachry, comes to visit Phelps and to offer him a proposition only to find that Aunt Polly is his old fiance. In the end everyone is happy for ever after.

Be sure to see this three act comedy farce, tonight, April 4. You'll shout your approval and hear loud excited cheers of joy when you see Russell Drake's smash hit "Busy As A Beaver."

Eaglettes Volley Games All Week

Johnny Ford Leads Team With 26 Points Credit

Defeating last year's District winners made a great mark for the Eaglettes when they out volleyed the Dumas Demonettes in the first two games in the Grade School Gymnasium, Wednesday night, March 27. Scores were 15-9 and 15-5. Johnny Ford and Dorothy Butler held the high scoring record with six points each. Acting as captain for the A string was Martha Jean Avent. Geneva McDougal served as substitute.

Fighting to the bitter end, the B string Demonettes defeated the B Eaglettes in the first two games. Game scores were 4-15 and 10-15. Louise Dickinson was acting captain and was second high point girl with five points. Norma Zell Zachry scored six points to again put her in high scoring position. Janey Forrester and Mary Sue Foster were substitutes. This is the first game this team has lost this season.

Both A and B teams were defeated Thursday night, March 28, when they met Amarillo Sandies in Amarillo. The A string scores were 13-15, 15-8 and 6-15. Johnny Ford led this team through all by serving eleven points. Geneva McDougal was second high scorer with eight points to her credit. Captain for the game was Dorothy Butler.

B string faced defeat again when the Sandies outscored them two out of three games. Sue Gillispie, captain, was high scorer with nine points. Louise Dickinson rated second scoring honor by making five points. Janey Forrester served as alternate.

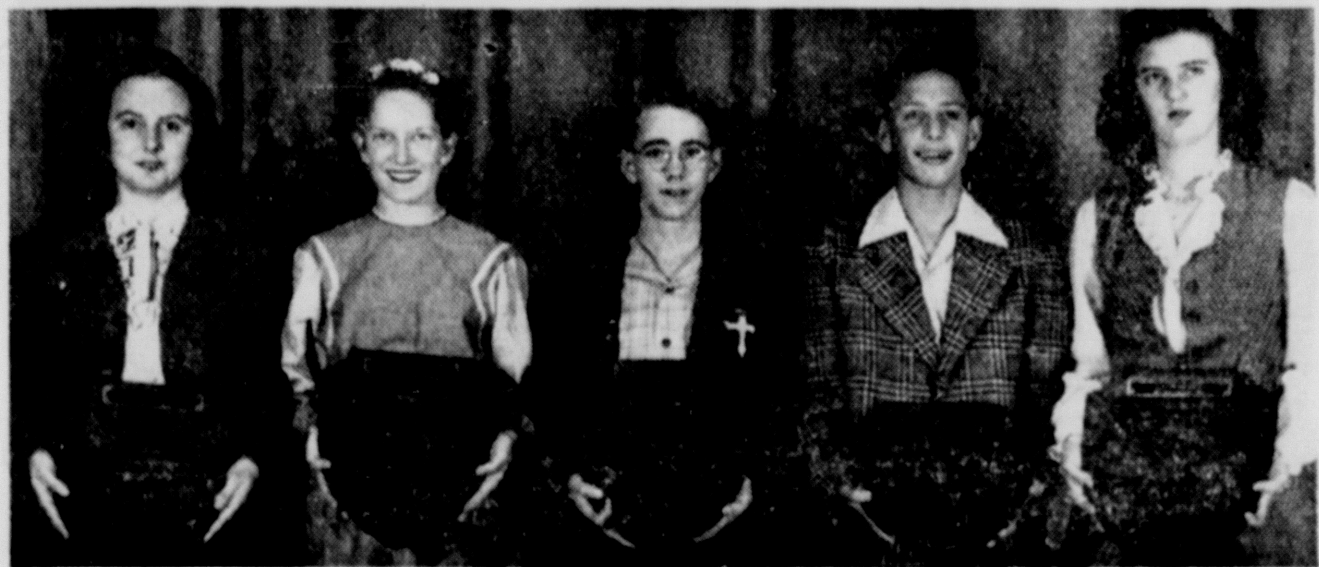

Eaglettes defeated the Happy Cowgirls four out of four games in the Grade School Gymnasium, Tuesday, March 26.

Memorial Window Of Chapel to Honor Men of T-Anchor

A contribution of $100 has been made to the W. T. chapel building fund by Margaret Conner Thomas, now a student at Ames, Iowa.

She is the widow of Drummond Thomas, former student of agriculture at West Texas State, who was killed in action during the war.

Her donation will be added to other gifts to make possible the purchase of a T-Anchor Farm window of the chapel. This will be dedicated to the memory of Drummond Thomas, Mack Thomas, Raymond R. Wagner, and Burton Culp, all of whom lived at the farm.

An adman told us the other day that he heard one of the Gold Dust Twins say "Lux against us."

COUNTY CLERK OFFICE

No telephone pole ever struck an automobile except in self defense.

Abraham Lincoln was writing straight from the shoulder when he penned this letter to a ne'er-do-well relative:

"When I came into Charleston day before yesterday, I learned that you are anxious to sell the land you have and move to Missouri. I have been thinking of this ever since and cannot but think such a notion is utterly foolish.

"What can you do in Missouri better than here? Is the land any richer? Can you there, any more than here, raise corn and wheat and oats without work? Will anybody there, any more than here, do your work for you? If you intend to go to work, there is no better place than right where you are; if you do not intend to go to work, you can not get along anywhere.

"Squirring and crawling about

It isn't WHEN you change, it's WHAT you change to!

Probably you are already thinking about that regular spring oil change for your car.

It's important. But equally important—is the kind of oil you change to!

For unless you change to a rugged, protective oil that'll stand up under the hot, hard driving conditions of the months ahead, we say—you're just wasting your money.

Make your spring change-over with an oil you can be sure about—Phillips 66 Motor Oil! It has been proved by 66,000,000,000 miles of all kinds of driving . . . by hundreds of thousands of pleased drivers.

Get set for Summer—with Phillips 66!

from place to place can do no good. You have raised no corn this year; and what you really want is to sell the land, get the money and spend it. Part with the land you have and, my life upon it, you will never after own a spot big enough to bury you in. Half you will get for the land, you will spend in moving to Missouri and the other half you will eat, drink and wear out, and no foot of land will be bought.

"Now do not misunderstand this letter; I do not write it in any unkindness. I write it in order, if possible, to get you to face the truth, which truth is, you are destitute because you have idled away your time. Your thousand pretenses for not getting along better are all nonsense; they deceive nobody but yourself. Go to work is the only cure for your case."

Did you know that the wind in the center of a tornado sometimes reaches a velocity of 500 miles an hour? And that coffee is the berry of a bush found originally in Arabia and Abyssinia and that the beverage, coffee, was introduced into Europe in the 16th Century? And that the cassowary is a member of the ostrich family, has three toes, lives in New Guinea and Australia and can outrun a horse? Did you say, "So what?"

We've often wondered who the poor fish was who started the superstition that Friday was an unlucky day.

Farmers are your neighbors~They want you to know that~

Cooperatives

put the farmers' SAVINGS DOLLARS to work on MAIN STREET

A DOLLAR saved is a dollar earned. Trite, but true! Truer than ever nowadays.

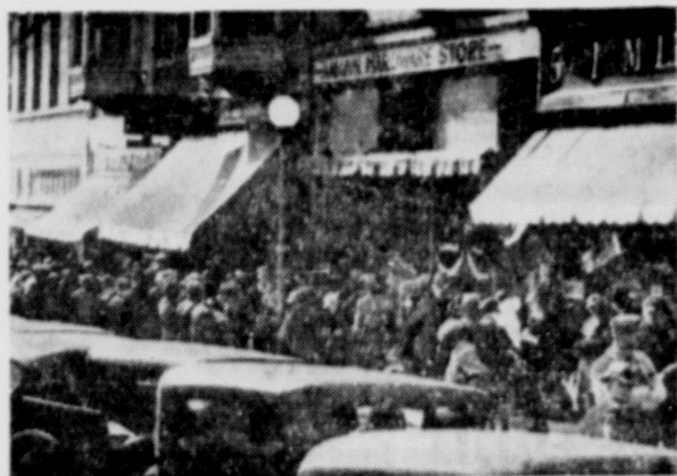

Your neighbors, the farmers, save money by marketing and purchasing cooperatively. Through cooperative partnership the dollars they save become extra earned dollars. And how they use those dollars!

Those cooperative savings dollars go for medical and dental attention. They go for new clothes, new furniture, new automobiles and many other things the farmers need. Without those savings dollars, the farmers often might have to go without some or all those things. And that would affect you.

Important to you townspeople, those cooperatively earned savings dollars stay at home. They work for you on Main Street. They mean extra buying power for the farmers. They mean an extra market for the goods and services you people in town supply to the farmers.

Last year, farmers cooperatives put millions of savings dollars to work on Main Streets the country over. Single communities, perhaps your own, benefited to the extent of thousands of dollars. Those extra dollars exist for the community only because of the farmers' co-ops.

So, be a booster for farmers' co-ops. Their savings dollars mean prosperity for your community. And that means prosperity for you.

Cooperatives are the very embodiment of free enterprise. Cooperatives are builders of real democracy.

These cooperatives help build your community
